

CITY OF CAPE TOWN OPEN DATA TERMS OF USE

The following Terms of Use apply to visitors and users of the Open Data Portal section of the City of Cape Town's website

DISCLAIMER

The City of Cape Town ("the City") in accordance with its Open Data Policy hereby makes data available without any remuneration. The City makes this data available on an "as is" basis and explicitly disclaims any representations and warranties, including, without limitation, the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose.

The City makes no representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied, about the completeness, accuracy, reliability, suitability or availability of data on the website or the data, products, services, or related graphics contained therein for any purpose. Any reliance you place on such data is therefore strictly at your own risk.

The City of Cape Town takes no responsibility for, and will not be liable for any errors, omissions, or inaccuracies in the data provided at this website regardless how caused; or any decision made or action taken or not taken by anyone using or relying upon data provided at this website.

The City of Cape Town takes no responsibility for, and will not be liable for the website being temporarily unavailable due to technical issues beyond our control. The User hereby irrevocably accepts the terms and conditions set out herein when this site is accessed and data is used. The City hereby reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to unilaterally edit, add, remove and/or amend any term and/or condition applicable to this site without any prior warning to the User. The City reserves the right to remove or prevent access to any User who breach any term and/or condition.

USE OF DATA

The User may use the data contained on this site free of charge, subject to the terms and conditions set out herein and added or amended from time to time and specifically undertakes to:

1. only use the data for a lawful purpose;
2. not to use the data to commit a criminal offence;
3. not to use the data to infringe any lawful entitlement, be it constitutional or common law, of any person, natural or juristic;
4. not to use the data to impersonate another or misrepresent his, her or its identity; and
5. not to alter, damage, delete any content or load any harmful programmes, computer code or files which may alter, damage, interrupt or limit access to or data from any other person.

The User may not, under any circumstances, state either expressly or by implication that access to or the use of data from this site has the endorsement, affiliation, support or approval of the City.

The User is required to explicitly state that the City does not warrant or guarantee the quality or accuracy of the data, accessed, extracted and/or used from this site.

Users are required to include the following disclaimer at the site where the software, application or other secondary or derivative application can be accessed or downloaded:

“This site provides products or services using data that has been modified for use from its original source, www.capetown.gov.za, the official website of the City of Cape Town. The City of Cape Town makes no claims as to the content, accuracy, timeliness, or completeness of any of the data provided at this site. The data provided at this site is subject to change at any time. It is understood that the data provided at this site is being used at one’s own risk.”

ACKNOWLEDGING THE CITY

Although you are not required to credit the City for each use or reproduction of the open data datasets, you are entitled to do so and encouraged to conspicuously announce that these datasets are publicly available from the City under these Terms of Use. Upon the request of the City, you may be required to remove a credit from future uses or reproductions should the City decide that such credit is not in the public interest.

INDEMNITY

The User of this site hereby indemnifies and hold the City, directors, agents and servants harmless against:

- a. any damage (whether foreseeable or not), whether movable or immovable, including any consequential damage or loss directly or indirectly flowing from use of or his, her or its reliance on the data on this site;
- b. liability in respect of any claims, including costs, which may be lodged or instituted as a consequence of his, her or its use of or reliance on the data on this site from any third parties, including any consequential damage directly or indirectly;

INTELLECTUAL RIGHTS

- 1.1 All intellectual property rights of whatsoever nature belonging to the City, including, without limitation, the City's logo, emblem or any other form of corporate identity, shall remain vested at all times in the City ("the IP").

- 1.2 The User shall not, under any circumstances whatsoever reproduce, copy or use the City's IP or permit the use of the City's IP by any third party without the City's prior written consent.
- 1.3 The User (including its representatives, agents and employees) will not at any time, or in any manner, lower the dignity, standing and reputation of the CITY or in any way contest the validity of, or prejudice, any of the City's IP.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

The City reserves the right to discontinue availability of content on this website at any time and for any reason.

The City reserves the right to revise and otherwise change the terms of use at any time and without notice. Any modification is effective immediately upon posting, unless otherwise stated. The User's continued use of City's website following the posting of any modification signifies the User's acceptance thereof. Users are advised to periodically visit this page to review the current terms and conditions of Use.

REPORTING ERRORS OR OTHER PROBLEMS ON THIS SITE

Users of this website should report any errors or problems that they encounter while using this website or accessing the data provided herein. Please report errors by email to opendata@capetown.gov.za or by using the Feedback function on the portal.
